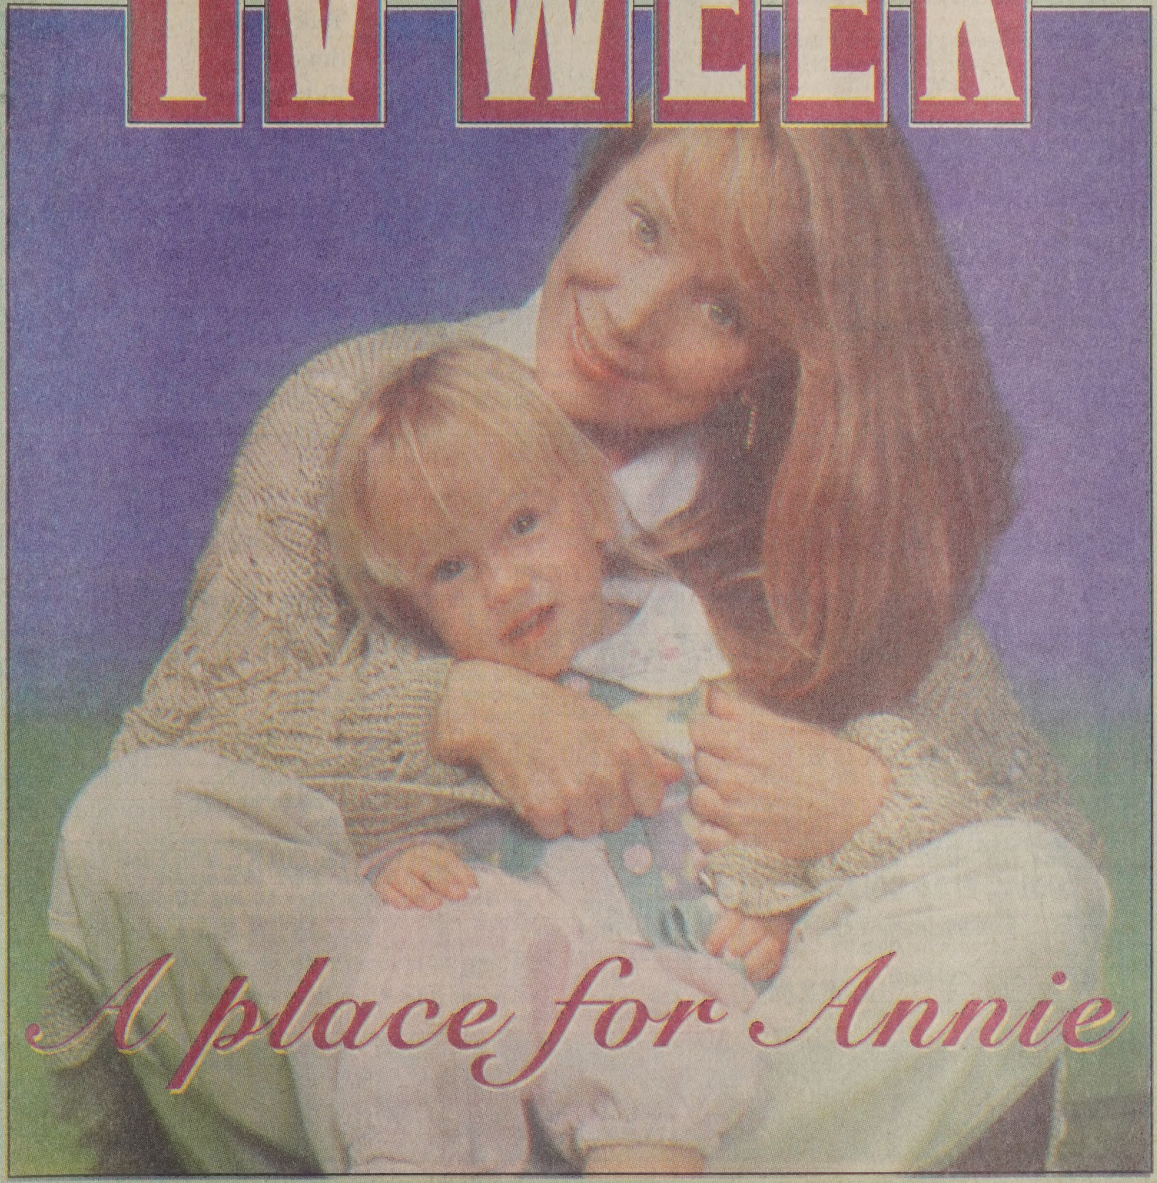
THE BAY AREA'S TELEVISION GUIDE ◆ MAY 1-7, 1994

EAST BAY EDITION

TV WEEK



A place for Annie

HOW TO USE TV WEEK

Different cable systems offer different channels, and offer them at different places on the dial. This book will help you find your favorite show no matter where you live.

► CHANNELS: The next page shows which channels are available on most cable systems in this area, and what number they're on.

► LISTINGS: In the daily listings, you'll find not only the channels, but also the number that each channel appears on in the biggest cable systems.

► PRIME TIME: Each day's listings are in easy-to-use charts: one for the morning, one for the afternoon, one for late night and two for prime time: separate listings for broadcast channels and for cable channels.

► MOVIES: The week's broadcast and cable movies are listed alphabetically at the front of the book. Pay Per View movies are listed on a separate page.

► QUESTIONS OR COMMENTS: Call us by using CityLine, (415) 512-5000. Enter category 2100.

For information about VCR-Plus numbers, call 1-800-732-1VCR.

Spacek Shines in a Poignant Story

BY COLLEEN HARTRY

Sissy Spacek stars as the foster mother of a HIV-positive baby

The much-honored Hallmark Hall of Fame marks its 181st presentation Sunday, May 1, on ABC. Academy Award-winning actress Sissy Spacek makes a rare television appearance in "A Place for Annie." She plays Susan, a nurse in a pediatric intensive care unit at a large hospital. The unit has received its first HIV-positive infant, Annie, whose AIDS-infected, addict mother has abandoned her.

Based on a true case, the story begins in 1986, when eight-week-old Annie arrives at the hospital. When an attempt is made by Annie's social worker, Alice (S. Epatha Merkerson), to place the infant in foster care — for what is presumed to be her last remaining days — there are no takers for the severely ill baby.

As days go by and the infant fails to gain weight, Susan says, "Annie knows that no one's pulling for her," and Alice replies, "No one wants a baby like this."

"Well, I want her," Susan says. Even when Alice warns, "You are setting yourself up for heartbreak," Susan announces she plans to apply to be Annie's foster mother.

When she is approved, Susan encounters the fears and misunderstandings of a society terrified of AIDS. She is unable to find any babysitters for the child while she is at work, until Dorothy Kilgore (distinguished actress Joan Plowright) answers the call. Dorothy, a feisty widow with no pressing family ties, finds new purpose as she gradually becomes surrogate mother to Susan and loving grandmother to Annie.

The story then shows us Annie as she celebrates her first birthday. The little girl is obviously thriving and appears vibrantly healthy. Susan is very happy as she announces she is going to file adoption papers.

It is at this point that the baby's birth mother, Linda Marston (Mary-Louise Parker of "Fried Green Tomatoes"), shows up unexpectedly to claim Annie. Six months out of detox, but suffering from AIDS, Linda has the force of the law behind her.

Havoc ensues as the bitter and gravely ill young woman, in no way able to cope with the care of a child, comes into the newly-formed family's lives like a hurricane, about to wreak destruction.

The story, directed by John Gray and scripted by Cathleen Young and Lee Guthrie, builds to a surprising conclusion of personal redemption and courage that will touch all but the most cynical hearts.

Joan Plowright plays a nanny to Annie (played by twins Kathy and Leslie Anderson) in "A Place for Annie," ABC's Hallmark Hall of Fame film, Sunday.

Sunday

Sissy Spacek stars in 'A Place for Annie.'

PRIME TIME

'Martin'

► FOX 8 p.m.

Martin Lawrence stars in the comedy series about the social trials of a young black man as he deals with life in the '90s. In this episode, the rap artist Snoop Doggy Dogg and football player Randall Cunningham show up at Pam's (Tichina Arnold) engagement party.

'Last Voyage of the Lusitania'

► KOFY 8 p.m.

Intriguing look at the sinking of the Lusitania when it was attacked by a German U-boat in 1915. The major question has always been whether or not the Lusitania was carrying munitions at the time of the encounter — this program attempts to solve this mystery by exploring the surrounding events.

MOVIES

'The Hallmark Hall of Fame: A Place for Annie'

► ABC 9 p.m.

This compassionate, fact-based film stars Sissy Spacek as Susan, a pediatric nurse who becomes a foster parent to an abandoned HIV-positive baby, Annie. The child flourishes in her care, and a year later, Susan decides to adopt Annie. At that point, the child's birth mother, Linda (Mary-Louise Parker), unexpectedly shows up to claim the child. Linda, a lonely, hardened young woman who contacted AIDS through her drug habit, does not have the knowledge or resources to care for a child, but nonetheless is determined to take her baby. When faced with the possibility of losing Annie, Susan comes up with a bold suggestion: she will welcome Linda into her home and care for her as well. The cast includes Joan Plowright as Annie's nanny, C. Epatha Merkerson as a social worker, and Jack Noseworthy as Susan's teenage son.

'Cape Fear'

► NBC 9 p.m.

In this film, Robert De Niro plays an ex-con out for revenge on the lawyer (Nick Nolte) who locked him up 14 years earlier. This fascinating remake of the 1962 thriller follows the ex-con as he threatens the lawyer and his family, making their lives a living hell. Jessica Lange co-stars as Nolte's beleaguered wife and Robert Mitchum — who played De Niro's role in the original version — makes a surprising cameo appearance.

'Rampage'

► HBO 10:30 p.m.

Director William Friedkin crafted this taut courtroom thriller about a prosecutor (Michael Biehn) who deals with a vicious serial killer (Alex McArthur). In the film, the prosecutor must prove that the killer is sane enough to stand trial.

It's Showtime for Richard Scarry

BY EVAN LEVINE

With more than 100 million copies of his books in print, Richard Scarry is indisputably one of the most popular authors for preschoolers. Now that "The Busy World of Richard Scarry" is a cartoon series on Showtime, kids can enjoy his humor every week.

Scarry's stories emphasize ordinary situations that spin out of control, and they feature animal characters who bear enough resemblance to children to make young readers identify with them. In one episode, for example, Huckle Cat tries to find a birthday present his mother will like, but when it breaks on the way home, he has to think quickly, with some funny results.

Interspersed between the stories are safety tips and explanations of how things work. (In one episode, we are reminded of why a letter needs a stamp and we get a refresher course in crossing the street safely.)

"As soon as Andrea (age 4-1/2) saw the beginning of the cartoon, she said, 'I know those characters,' " commented Andrea's mom. "She was immediately interested."

She added, "The cartoon provided opportunities for parents and children to discuss the topics, since each one had some sort of lesson. Andrea said she would definitely watch it."

Candice Bergen stars in 'Murphy Brown.'

PRIME TIME

'Murphy Brown'

► CBS 8 p.m.

This irreverent look at the life-behind-the-scenes of a successful news magazine show stars Candice Bergen as the sassy reporter Murphy Brown. The sometimes controversial series often incorporates real-life news personalities and offers bold political commentaries on actual news events. In this episode, love is in the air when an old flame of Murphy's returns to town to try to rekindle their relationship — but not without ramifications.

'Northern Exposure'

► CBS 9 p.m.

The adventures of the inhabitants of Cicely, Alaska take a very modern turn when a local gay couple (Doug Ballard and Don R. McManus) weds — much to the consternation of Maurice (Barry Corbin). When Maurice avoids the wedding, he disappoints some who felt he should have risen to the occasion. Meanwhile, Holling (John Cullum) gets into trouble when he tries to take shortcuts catering the wedding. Another couple's relationship is tested when Maggie (Janine Turner) thinks that Joel's (Rob Morrow) kindness is making her sick to her stomach.

MOVIES

'House Party 2'

► FOX 8 p.m.

Christopher Reid stars in this comedy film sequel that sends Kid (Reid) back to college. When his church congregation raises the tuition for him, Kid finds himself threatened by those who would gladly part him from his money. Also featured in the movie is the music of the rap group "Kid 'N' Play."

'Moment of Truth: Cradle of Conspiracy'

► NBC 9 p.m.

Based on a true story, this film deals with a family's attempts to save their unborn grandchild from the world of baby brokering. Danica McKellar ("Wonder Years") stars as their pregnant daughter who finds herself coerced into giving up her baby — much to the horror of her mother (Dee Wallace Stone). The story follows the family's heroic efforts as they try to save both the daughter — and unborn child — from this fate.

'Indecent Proposal'

► HBO 9:30 p.m.

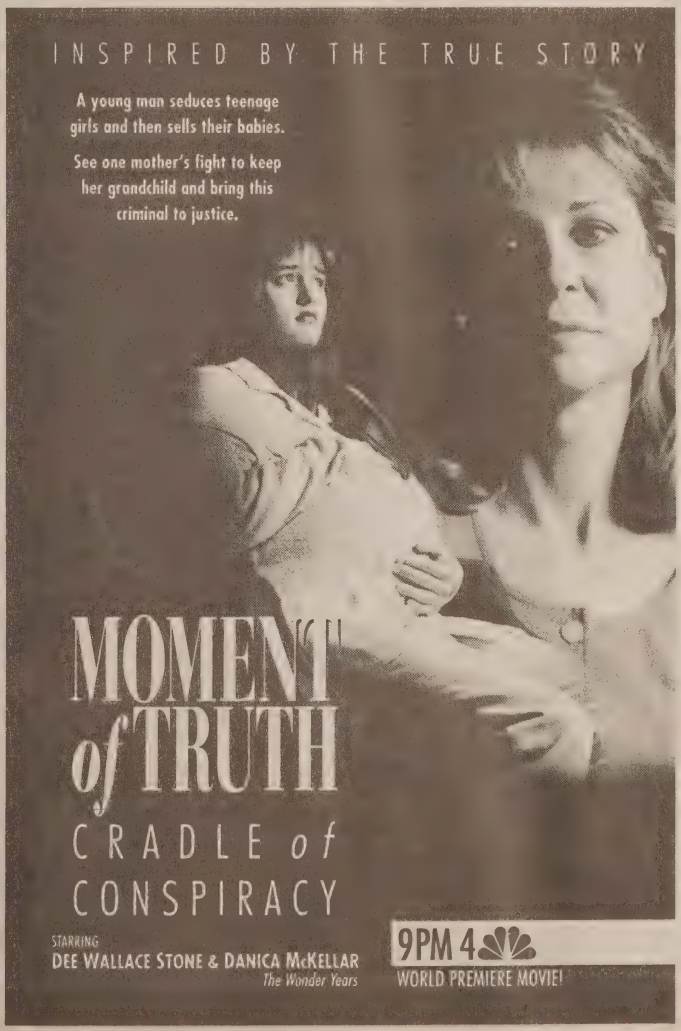
A young married couple is seduced by the lure of money — but then live to regret it — in this controversial look at the mores of love. Robert Redford is entirely believable as the charmer who offers an architect (Woody Harrelson) a million dollars to sleep with his not unwilling wife (Demi Moore).



INSPIRED BY THE TRUE STORY
A young man seduces teenage girls and then sells their babies.
See one mother's fight to keep her grandchild and bring this criminal to justice.

Featured in the 'Academy of Country Music Awards' is singer Clint Black.

SPECIALS

'Academy of Country Music Awards'

► NBC 8 p.m.

The best in country music is celebrated on this broadcast of the 29th annual awards show. Reba McEntire and Alan Jackson serve as hosts as awards are presented in 12 categories — including entertainer of the year. Clint Black is among the stars featured, along with Brooks & Dunn, Wynonna Judd and many other top country performers. The program is televised from the Universal Amphitheatre in Hollywood, California.

'Nova'

► PBS 8 p.m.

This acclaimed science documentary series continues its 20th anniversary celebration with programs that cover diverse subjects: aerobatics, codebreaking, Kilimanjaro and the dinosaurs of Mongolia's Gobi desert. In this segment, Magician James "The Amazing" Randi challenges the authenticity of paranormal phenomena. Randi explores the knifeless surgery practiced in the Philippines, and the magician also takes a look at U.S. faith healers.

'Roseanne'

► ABC 9 p.m.

Another slice of life in Dan (John Goodman) and Roseanne's (Roseanne Arnold) hit comedy series — this time dealing with some serious ethical questions. In this episode, Roseanne's son D. J. (Michael Fishman) asks some hard questions about honesty when Roseanne takes delivery on too many stoves for the diner.

'NYPD Blue'

► ABC 10 p.m.

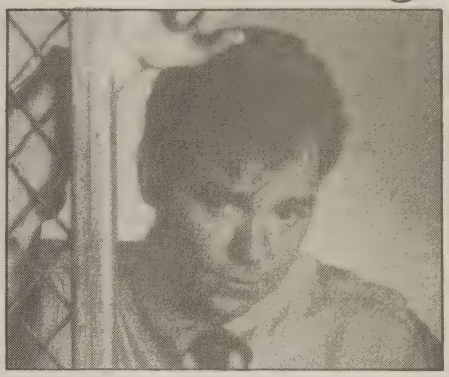
This often controversial series takes a hard-line look at the New York City police force. In this installment, a drunken Andy (Dennis Franz) ends up in a misguided love squabble. Meanwhile, Lieutenant Arthur Fancy is not happy with his wife's pregnancy.



David Caruso stars in the ABC dramatic series 'NYPD Blue.'

MOVIES

'Boiling Point'

► HBO 8 p.m.

A federal agent (Wesley Snipes) takes on a friend's killer in this film thriller shot in L.A. The film showcases lots of shoot-em-up action with a realistic day-in-the-life feel. Directed by James B. Harris, the film's co-stars include Dennis Hopper, Lolita Davidovich, and Valerie Perrine.

'Volcano'

► TBS 10 p.m.

Great visual effects mark this Jules-Vernish adventure story about a group of treasure hunters. Maximilian Schell, Diane Baker and Brian Keith are among the crew of a sailing vessel bound for Krakatoa where they hope to find a treasure-laden sunken ship. However, the forces of nature — a volcanic explosion and a tidal wave — make the going rough. Originally titled "Krakatoa, East of Java," the 1969 film was heavily cut after its premiere.

Wednesday

Richard Karn and Tim Allen star in the ABC hit comedy series 'Home Improvement.'

SPECIALS

'Tribute to Charles Kuralt'

► CBS 7 p.m.

Charles Kuralt recently announced his retirement from television news and this tribute is his old network's tip of the hat to him. Host Morley Safer, Kuralt's close friend and colleague, helps paint an intimate portrait of the newsmeister's career — a span of 37 years behind the news desk — and on the road.

PRIME TIME

'Home Improvement'

► ABC 8 p.m.

Stand-up comic Tim Allen stars as Tim Taylor, in this comedy series that pokes fun at all "fix-it-yourself" TV shows. In this episode, Tim's wife, Jill (Patrician Richardson) wants their son Mark (Taran Smith) to see his first ballet. However, when Tim spoils her plans, Jill convinces him to leave their two other sons, Randy (Jonathan Taylor Thomas) and Brad (Zachery Ty Bryan) at home alone.

'Beverly Hills, 90210'

► FOX 8 p.m.

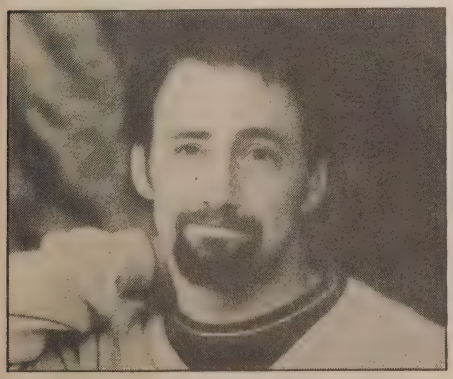
The hit dramatic series which focuses on the lives and trials of students in a Beverly Hills high school — and the social pressures they must often deal with. This time, Brenda (Shannon Doherty) deals with pressures of her own when rumors circulate about the way she got the lead role in the university's production — supposedly by sleeping with the casting director. The series co-stars Jason Priestley and Jennie Garth.



Arye Gross stars in the new ABC comedy series 'These Friends of Mine.'

'These Friends of Mine'

► ABC 9:30 p.m.

Ellen DeGeneres stars as a book store manager in this comedy series about thirty-something friendship. In this episode, Ellen fans a flame between her boss (Cristina Rose) and her friend, Adam (Arye Gross) — but she's the one who ends up getting burned.

MOVIES

'Don't Tell Mom the Babysitter's Dead'

► HBO 8 p.m.

A comic look at what happens when spoiled kids are left home to fend for themselves — and finally have to learn the value of a dollar. Cristina Applegate stars as the elder daughter who must find a way to support her siblings after their babysitter dies. At first she thinks that the situation is all fun and games — until she has to go to work for a clothing manufacturer (Joanna Cassidy). The film's co-stars include John Getz, Keith Coogan and Christopher Plummer.

'Rush'

► SHOW 10:40 p.m.

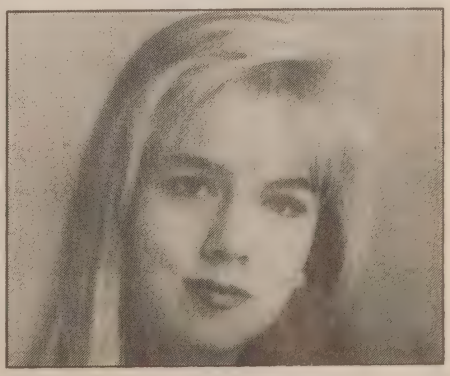
Based on Kim Wozencraft's gritty novel, this film takes a harrowing look at narcotics undercover work — and its often unexpected results. Jason Patric stars as the narcotic agent who gets strung out on the drugs he's supposed to help regulate. Jennifer Jason Leigh co-stars as the young woman recruited to be his partner — who also falls prey to addiction. The picture offers a realistic look at a "junkie's" existence and the often miserable struggles to go "cold turkey."



Jennie Garth plays Kelly Taylor on the FOX series 'Beverly Hills, 90210.'

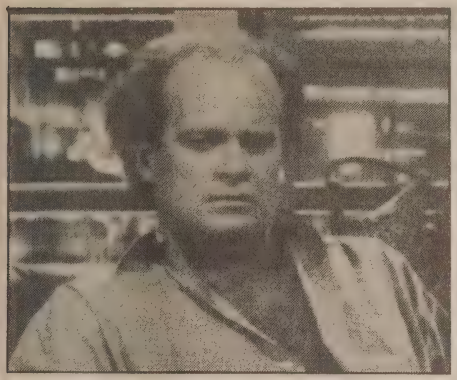
Thursday



Kelsey Grammer stars in the comedy sitcom 'Frasier.'

SPECIALS

'Mystery!: Prime Suspect 3'

► PBS 9 p.m.

Helen Mirren reprises her role as Detective Chief Inspector Jane Tennison in this new four-part thriller. On the trail of a child killer, Tennison suspects a cover-up in the case after she is warned to stay away from certain suspects. Tom Bell co-stars as her chief rival and tormentor Sgt. Bill Otely.

'For the Whales'

► A&E 10 p.m.

This innovative performing arts special is part concert, part whale show and part surrealistic excitement. Accenting performances by the Vancouver Bach Choir, the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra, opera singer Judith Forst and Mark Pedrotti are killer whales — Hyak, Finna and Bjossa from the Vancouver Aquarium.

'Wings'

► NBC 8:30 p.m.

Steven Weber stars as pilot Brian Hackett in this comedy series about an airfield in Massachusetts. In this episode, Brian finds himself on the outs with a girlfriend after he goes out on the town for some late-night drinking. Meanwhile, the Diet Coke TV ad guy, Lucky Vanous, makes a shirtless appearance at the airport.

'Frasier'

► NBC 9:30 p.m.

The new comedy series that follows the "Cheers" regular Dr. Frasier Crane (Kelsey Grammer) to a Lillith-free life. This episode finds Frasier and his brother Niles (David Hyde Pierce) teaming up for one of Frasier's radio talk shows — the topic, sibling rivalry.

MOVIES

'Some Kind of Hero'

► TBS 7:20 p.m.

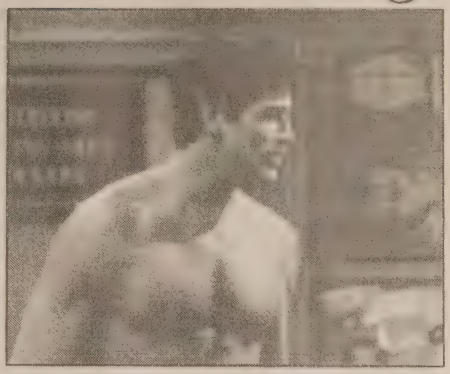
Based on a James Kirkwood novel, this comedy-drama stars Richard Pryor as a Vietnam veteran who comes back home after six years as a POW. But more than a few surprises await the unsuspecting veteran — some not so funny. The co-stars include Margot Kidder, Ronny Cox, Olivia Cole.



Lucky Vanous guest stars in a special airing of 'Wings.'

'Mr. Destiny'

► SHOW 8 p.m.

James Belushi stars in this comedy about an ordinary guy who gets to change his life when he travels back in time. The story revolves around the outcome of a very significant high school baseball game that determined Belushi's entire life: he struck out. Michael Caine, an angel-type character, appears and offers the loser a second chance at bat. The result is a completely revised life — but Belushi asks if it's really for the better. Linda Hamilton co-stars in this fun look at the true meaning of success.

'Beyond the Law'

► HBO 9 p.m.

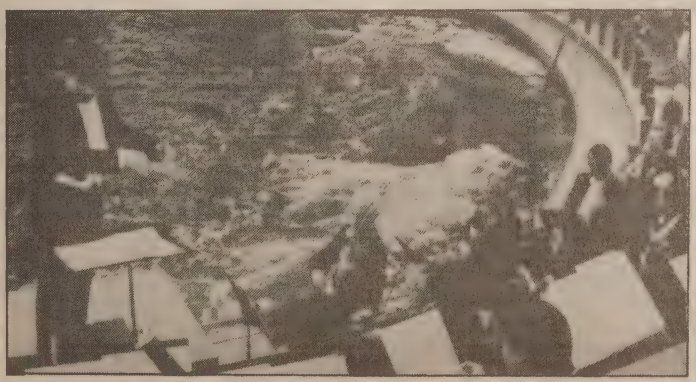
In this offbeat film, Lee Van Cleef stars as an outlaw who undergoes a suspicious moral transformation. There's lots of humor as the outlaw turns "good" in order to win the post of sheriff — just long enough so that he can get his hands on a precious shipment of silver.



The Vancouver Symphony Orchestra performs with whales in the A&E special 'Whalesong.'

Friday

Country singer Garth Brooks is featured in the NBC special 'This is Garth Brooks, Too!.'

SPECIALS

'This is Garth Brooks, Too!'

► NBC 8 p.m.

Mega-star country crooner Garth Brooks appears in this special that showcases him in full performance glory. Televised from Dallas, Texas, Brooks sings many of his top hits from his latest album "In Pieces," including "The Thunder Rolls" and "Standing Outside the Fire." This program is the follow-up to the successful "This is Garth Brooks" which aired last year. Since then Brooks has recorded three albums which have all sold in the millions.

'Boy Meets World'

► ABC 8:30 p.m.

In this series, William Daniels portrays Mr. Feeney, a sixth-grade teacher who has his hands full with his student Cory Matthews (Ben Savage). In this episode, a biology film leads to romance while Cory has Mother's Day dilemma.

MOVIES

'New Jack City'

► HBO 9 p.m.

This strong anti-drug film stars Wesley Snipes as a powerful Harlem drug lord who oversees the crack trade in his territory. Ice T. and Judd Nelson play two maverick cops hired to bring the drug lord down — if they can get to him. Directed by Mario Van Peebles, the movie offers a fast-paced look at the down and dirty of undercover life on the street. Co-stars include Vanessa Williams and Van Peebles himself.

'The Last Prostitute'

► LIFE 9 p.m.

Based on William Borden's play, this touching film stars Sonia Braga as a legendary prostitute who has changed her ways. Wil Wheaton stars as a 1960s teen who seeks out the services of the woman — only to find that she is retired from the business and now runs a horse farm.

Wesley Snipes stars in the action movie 'New Jack City.'

The co-stars include Woody Watson, Dennis Letts, Cotter Smith and David Kaufamn.

'Hart to Hart: Old Friends Never Die'

► NBC 9 p.m.

Stefanie Powers and Robert Wagner reprise their roles as the jet-setting supersleuths, Jennifer and Jonathan Hart — with many of the old cast still in place. In this premiere episode, a publisher invites the Harts to a remote island. There, Jennifer overhears two men plotting a murder — possibly Jonathan's.

'Home Alone 2: Lost in New York'

► MAX 9:30 p.m.

Macaulay Culkin reprises his role as the smarter-than-average kid who gets stranded by his parents — again. This time, he finds himself alone in New York and decides to live it up — until he runs into his two old criminal friends (Joe Pesci and Daniel Stern). What follows are his elaborate attempts to booby-trap the thieves as they chase him around town. John Heard and Catherine O'Hara reprise their roles as the forgetful parents.

Catherine O'Hara and Macaulay Culkin star in 'Home Alone 2' on Cinemax.

Saturday

Michael Chiklis stars in 'The Commish.'

PRIME TIME

'The Commish'

► ABC 10 p.m.

Actually based on a New York police commissioner's life, this series takes a real-life look at police work in a New York suburb. Michael Chiklis stars as Police Commissioner Tony Scali who adds a very human touch to all his investigations. In this episode, while Sgt. Stan Kelly (Geoffrey Nauffts) pushes for a promotion, he also finds himself increasingly attracted to a drug dealer's abused wife.

MOVIES

'The Rocketeer'

► ABC 8 p.m.

Whimsical tale about a 1930s pilot (Bill Campbell) who discovers a secret weapon: an air-pack that turns him into a human rocket. Timothy Dalton is great as the villain who takes an Errol Flynn approach to everything he does. Film captures the tone — and the look — of the '30s with lots of action, thrills and romance (the latter provided by co-star Jennifer Connelly).

'Guinevere'

► LIFE 8 p.m.

In this new take on the legend of Camelot, elements of feminism bring King Arthur's love, Guinevere, to the forefront. Sheryl Lee stars as the medieval queen who exhibits stronger characteristics than the legend suggests. Guinevere is shown as the true creator of the Round Table — a woman who celebrates the magic of childbirth as much as the sword in the stone. This film follows the queen as she falls in love with Lancelot (Noah Wyle) and then forsakes him to marry King Arthur (Sean Patrick Flanery) — all so that she can bring peace to England.

'The Seven Samurai'

► PBS 8 p.m.

This 1954 Japanese classic remains one of the most powerful statements of humanity ever captured on film — and it still provides a standard for young filmmakers everywhere. Akira Kurosawa directed this epic which deals with a 16th-century Japanese village which hires professional warriors — seven swordsmen — to defend them from warring thieves. Strong visuals and an equally compelling cast make for a memorable — and moving — cinematic experience.

'Singles'

► HBO 10 p.m.

Bridget Fonda and Matt Dillon star in this lively comedy about life in the Seattle singles scene. Campbell Scott and Kyra Sedgewick also co-star in this "Midsummer's Night Dream" pastiche of love relationships in various stages of "becoming." Directed by Cameron Crowe.

You don't have to wait another four years to watch your favorites!
